

SLONANO 2009

19.-21. October, Ljubljana, Slovenia

Nanomaterials for Energy Storage and Conversion BioNanotechnology

Programme

SLONANO 2009 will concentrate on two major topics "Nanomaterials for Energy Storage and Conversion" and "BioNanotechnology". Nevertheless, the organizers are happy to receive contributions on any aspects of nanotechnology, from fundamental research to industrial applications. There will be invited talks, oral presentations (selected by the Organizing committee), and a poster session.

Scope

SLONANO conferences have been organized annually since 2002, so that SLONANO 2009 represents the eighth in the row. The basic idea of the conference remains the same: To foster the rapid exchange of results, ideas and know-how in the field of nanotechnology. In particular, young scientists are strongly encouraged to present their work.

Organizing Committee

Dragan Mihailović, J. Stefan Institute

Robert Dominko, National Institute of Chemistry
